Article 3. Types and frequency of general meetings.

General Shareholders' Meetings may be ordinary or extraordinary.

The Ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting shall be held, once called by the board of directors, within the first six months of each financial year, in order to review the management of the company; to approve the financial statements for the previous year, if applicable; and to decide on the appropriation of earnings.

Nevertheless, although the General Shareholders' Meeting may have been called as an ordinary meeting, it may also discuss and decide on any matter within its area of competence that has been included in the notice of the meeting and complies with current legislation.

have been called and validly convened for the purpose of discussing any issue, when all of the share capital is present or represented and those attending unanimously agree to hold a meeting and its agenda.

Article 5. Extraordinary General Shareholders' Meetings.

All other meetings shall be classified as Extraordinary General Shareholders' Meetings.

Article 5. Extraordinary General Shareholders' Meeting.

All other meetings shall be classified as Extraordinary General Shareholders' Meetings.

Article 6. Calling of Meetings.

The board of directors shall call an ordinary or extraordinary General Shareholders' Meeting by publishing an announcement in the Official Gazette of the Mercantile Register, on the corporate website of the Company and the website of the National Securities Market Commission, at least one month prior to the scheduled date of the Meeting (notwithstanding the provisions of the following paragraph).

When the company offers shareholders the possibility to vote via electronic means, made available to all shareholders, Extraordinary General Shareholders' Meetings may be called with a minimum notice period of fifteen days. The reduction in the period for calling the meeting shall require a specific resolution by the Ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting passed by at least two thirds of the subscribed share capital with the right to vote and will not be valid beyond the date of the following meeting.

The announcement of the meeting shall state whether it is an ordinary or extraordinary meeting; the name of the Company; the date, time and place of the meeting; the agenda, indicating the matters to be addressed; the date on which the meeting will take place at second call, if appropriate, which must occur at least twenty four hours after the meeting at first call; as well as any other information that may be required according to the applicable regulations at any given time and, in particular, those required under Article 517 of the Capital Companies Act. The Company shall undertake to inform shareholders of the probability of holding the General Shareholders' Meeting at first or second call.

The announcement shall state that shareholders have the right to be represented in the General Shareholders' Meeting by another person, even if not a shareholder, and indicate the requirements and procedures for exercising this right, in addition to shareholders' right to information and how to exercise this right.

[ENGLISH TRANSLATION FOR INFORMATION PURPOSES. SPANISH VERSION SHOULD PREVAIL]

The board of directors must include in the notice of the meeting any specific means of communication available to shareholders for exercising their right to vote or delegating their vote remotely, as well as basic instructions on how to exercise this right.

Shareholders representing at least three percent of the Company's share capital may request publication of a supplementary notice to the notice of an Ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting, including one or more items on the agenda, provided that these items are accompanied by a justification or a justified proposed resolution. This right shall be exercised by reliably sending a notification to the Company's registered office within five days of the publication of the notice of meeting. The supplementary notice to the meeting must be published at least fifteen days prior to the date set for the General Shareholders' Meeting.

Additionally, shareholders representing at least three percent of the share capital may, within the same period indicated in the preceding paragraph, submit justified proposals for resolutions on matters already included or which should be included on the agenda of a previously called General Shareholders' Meeting. These justified proposals shall be published on the Company's website under the terms established in the regulations applicable to the Company.

Furthermore, the shareholders that represent three percent of the company's share capital may call a General Shareholders' Meeting to decide on whether to take shareholder derivative actions against the directors, or to take shareholder derivative actions without a resolution from the Meeting, as well as oppose any compromise or waive the right to a shareholder derivative action.

The board of directors or shareholders representing at least one percent of the share capital may require a notary public to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting to take the minutes. This must be requested under the circumstances provided by law.

If a legally constituted General Shareholders' Meeting is not held at first call, and the notice of the meeting did not indicate the date of the second call, this must be announced, with the same agenda and publication requirements as the first call, within fifteen days following the date of the General Shareholders' Meeting not held and at least ten days in advance of the date of the second Meeting.

Article 7. Singular notice of meeting.

In the absence of the required notice of meeting, the shareholders may request the Secretary of the Mercantile Court of Seville or the Commercial Registry of Seville to apply the provisions of Article 169 of the Capital Companies Act, following consultation of the board of directors and the matter being recorded in the meeting's minutes.

Article 8. Right to receive information prior to the General Shareholders' Meeting.

Shareholders may request the information or clarifications that they deem appropriate, from the board of directors, regarding matters included on the agenda, or may submit questions in writing that they deem relevant, from the day of publication of the notice of the General Shareholders' Meeting until five days prior to the date of the meeting.

Shareholders may also request information or clarifications or submit written questions, with the same notice period and in the same way, regarding public information that has been provided by the Company to the National Securities Market Commission since the previous General Shareholders' Meeting was held. The board of directors must provide the requested information, in writing, up to the day of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

Requests for information may be made by submitting them to the Company's registered address, or sending them to the Company via post or other remote means of communication specified in the notice of the meeting. Such requests shall be permitted when the document being used to request the information includes mechanisms that the board of directors believes fulfil the appropriate guarantees of authenticity and identification of the shareholder exercising the right to information, in accordance with a resolution previously adopted and published for such purposes.

Whatever the means used to issue requests for information, the shareholder's request must include the shareholder's full name and details of the shares owned so that this information can be checked against the list of shareholders and the number of shares in the shareholder's name provided by Sociedad de Gestión de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores, S.A.U. (Iberclear) or the corresponding entity, for the General Shareholders' Meeting in question. The shareholder shall be responsible for maintaining proof that the request was delivered to the Company in time and form. The Company website shall provide the relevant explanations for shareholders wishing to exercise their right to information, in accordance with the applicable regulations.

Requests for information made according to this Article shall be answered upon confirmation of the identity and condition of shareholder of the person making the request, prior to the holding of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

The board of directors must provide the requested information or clarifications, in writing, until the day of the General Shareholders' Meeting, except in the event that:

- (i) The information is requested by shareholders that represent less than twenty five percent of the paid-up capital.

[ENGLISH TRANSLATION FOR INFORMATION PURPOSES. SPANISH VERSION SHOULD PREVAIL]

- (ii) The request for information or clarification does not refer to matters included on the agenda of the notice of the meeting or to public information that has been provided by the Company to the National Securities Market Commission since the last General Shareholders' Meeting was held;
- (iii) The information may be unnecessary to uphold the shareholder's right, or if there are objective reasons to believe that the information could be used for purposes not related to the company or that its publication may damage the company or its related companies;
- (iv) The information requested is clearly and directly available to all shareholders in a question and answer format on the Company's website; or
- (v) Legal or regulatory provisions or judicial rulings state otherwise.

The board of directors may authorize any of its members, the chairmen of any of its sub-committees, its secretary or, if applicable, its vice-chairman to respond to requests for information from shareholders on behalf of and representing the Board.

The information requested by shareholders shall be provided via the same means as the corresponding request, unless the shareholder indicates another means from among those deemed ideal according to this article. In all cases, directors may provide the requested information by means of registered mail with proof of receipt or by registered fax.

The Company website will include valid requests for information, clarifications as well as the questions and answers provided in writing by the directors, in accordance with the regulations applicable to the Company.

Article 9. Attendance.

Shareholders must hold a minimum of three hundred and seventy five (375) shares to have the right to attend the Shareholders' Meeting, provided that prior to the Meeting the shareholder is certified by the corresponding named attendance card, which will indicate the number, class and series of shares owned, as well as the number of votes that can be cast. The card shall be issued by the entity that manages the book entry register, at least five days prior to the date of the General Shareholders' Meeting at first call.

Article 10. Representation.

All shareholders that have the right to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting may be represented by another person, even if this person is not a shareholder.

In all cases, proxies must be conferred specifically for each meeting, in writing or via the following remote means of communication:

- (i) By means of postal correspondence, sending the company the duly signed and completed attendance card and vote issued by the entity(s) responsible for maintaining the book entry system, or via any other written means that the board of directors allows as duly accrediting the granted proxy and the identity of the represented shareholder, by virtue of a resolution previously adopted for such purposes and duly published.
- (ii) By electronic means or other remote means of communication that the board of directors may establish, if applicable, at the time of calling each General Shareholders' Meeting, provided that the document that grants the proxy includes the mechanisms that the board of directors considers suitable for ensuring adequate guarantees of authenticity of the granted proxy and the identity of the represented shareholder, in accordance with a resolution previously adopted for such purposes and duly published.

Proxies granted by any of the aforementioned remote means of communication must be received by the company prior to the twenty four hours of the day immediately preceding the date of the General Shareholders' Meeting at first or second call.

The board of directors shall be authorized to implement the aforementioned conditions and to establish the relevant and state-of-the-art rules, measures and procedures in order to implement the process of granting proxies via electronic means, adapting them to the legal regulations that govern this system, the company's bylaws and these

Regulations, as applicable. These means and procedures shall be published on the company's corporate website, as applicable.

Proxies may also be extended to items not included on the agenda but which may be discussed by the General Shareholders' Meeting in accordance with the law, in which the proxy-holder shall vote in the way that it deems to be most favorable to the interests of the represented party.

If the proxy is not accompanied by instructions to exercise the right to vote or if there are doubts about the intended proxy-holder or the scope of the proxy, unless the shareholder expressly indicates to the contrary, the delegated powers:

- (i) Shall be granted in favor of the chairman of the board of directors;
- (ii) Shall cover all of the items on the agenda of the notice of the General Shareholders' Meeting;
- (iii) Shall include a vote in favor of all of the proposed resolutions put forward by the board of directors that are items on the agenda for the meeting; and
- (iv) Shall also apply to any items not included on the agenda of the notice of the meeting that may be discussed by the General Shareholders' Meeting, according to law.

Prior to being appointed, the proxy-holder must inform the shareholder in detail about the existence of any conflicts of interest. If a conflict arises after the appointment has been made and the represented shareholder has not been notified of its potential existence, the proxy-holder must inform the shareholder immediately. In both cases, if new specific voting instructions have not been received for each of the matters on which the proxy-holder must vote on behalf of the shareholder, the proxy-holder must abstain from voting, notwithstanding the provisions of the following paragraph.

Unless otherwise expressly indicated by the represented shareholder, in the event that the proxy-holder is subject to a conflict of interest and does not have specific voting instructions on each of the matters to be voted on, the represented shareholder shall be deemed to have granted a proxy for these cases, jointly and severally and successively, (in the event that any of them is in turn subject to a conflict of interest), to the following, in this order: the chairman of the General Shareholders' Meeting, the secretary of the General Shareholders' Meeting, and the vice-secretary of the board of directors, should this position exist.

Legal persons, minors and those lacking the civil legal capacity may attend the General

Shareholders' Meeting via their legal representatives, who must accredit their representation to the chairman of the Meeting, all without prejudice to family representation and the granting of general powers of attorney, regulated by Article 187 of the Capital Companies Act.

Article 11. Quorum.

The General Shareholders' Meeting shall be validly constituted at first call when the shareholders present or represented hold at least twenty five percent of the issued share capital with the right to vote.

The meeting shall be validly constituted at second call regardless of the amount of capital present or represented.

Article 12. Quorum of Extraordinary Shareholders' Meetings.

Extraordinary General Shareholders' Meetings will be held when they are called by the board of directors, provided that the Board believes it is in the Company's interests, or when it is requested by a number of shareholders that own at least three percent of the share capital, who must state the matters to be discussed by the Meeting in their request.

In such cases, the Meeting must be called for a date within two months following the date on which the directors would have been required by a notary public to call it. The directors shall prepare the agenda, including the subjects included in the request.

The Extraordinary General Shareholders' Meeting shall be validly constituted at first call when the shareholders that are present or represented hold at least twenty five percent of the issued share capital with the right to vote.

The meeting will be validly constituted at second call regardless of the amount of capital present or represented.

Article 13. Special Quorum.

An Ordinary or Extraordinary General Shareholders' Meeting can only validly agree to issue debentures; increase or reduce the capital; transform, merge, split or wind-up the company, and in general make any modification to the company's bylaws, when shareholders representing at least fifty percent of the issued share capital with the right to vote are present or represented at the meeting at first call.

This percentage is reduced to twenty five percent of the issued capital when the meeting is held at second call. When shareholders that are present or represented represent less than fifty percent of the issued capital with the right to vote, resolutions may only be adopted by a favorable vote of two thirds of the capital present or represented at the Meeting.

Article 14. Place of meeting and extension

General Shareholders' Meetings shall be held in Seville on the day indicated in the notice of the meeting. These sessions of the Meeting may be extended over one or more consecutive days.

An extension may be agreed at the proposal of the board of directors or at the request of shareholders that represent at least twenty five percent of the share capital that is present or represented at the meeting.

Article 15. Constitution.

1. Shareholders or their valid representatives may present their respective attendance or proxy voting cards to the staff responsible for shareholder registration or, if appropriate, the documents verifying their legal representative capacity, in the place and on the date scheduled for the holding of the General Shareholders' Meeting, at first or second call, beginning one hour prior to the time announced for the Meeting (unless otherwise specified in the notice of the meeting). Attendance or proxy voting cards presented to registration staff after the time established for the start of the General Shareholders' Meeting shall not be admitted.

Registration of shareholders and proxy-holders attending will be carried out using optical reading systems or other technical means considered appropriate. Once the process of registering the remote voting, attendance or proxy cards has concluded and a sufficient quorum has been verified, the committee of officers of the General Shareholders' Meeting and the attendance roll will be constituted. The attendance roll, which includes remote voters and those present, shall be stored on an electronic medium that shall be sealed, that the secretary of the Meeting, with the approval of the chairman, shall identify and sign.

2. Shareholders or their proxy-holders, as appropriate, arriving late at the place where the General Shareholders' Meeting is held, once registration of attendance or proxy voting cards has closed, may enter the Meeting (in the room where the Meeting is held or, if deemed appropriate by the Company to avoid confusion during the Meeting, in an adjoining room where they can follow the Meeting) but neither the shareholders nor their proxy-holders (nor the shareholder represented) will be included on the list of attendees.

[ENGLISH TRANSLATION FOR INFORMATION PURPOSES. SPANISH VERSION SHOULD PREVAIL]

3. The meeting shall commence at the scheduled place, date and time, at first or second call, once the committee of officers has been constituted and the attendance roll created.

The chairman, or the secretary if delegated by the chairman, will read out the total figures from the attendance roll, stating the number of shareholders with the right to vote present or represented at the meeting, the number of shares corresponding to each of these groups, and the percentage of the capital they represent.

Once this information has been publically announced by the chairman or the secretary, the chairman will declare the General Shareholders' Meeting as duly and validly constituted at first or second call, as applicable.

4. Once the Meeting has been declared as officially constituted by the chairman, and notwithstanding their right to make any statements they consider appropriate when offered the floor, the shareholders in attendance may inform the notary public to be recorded in the minutes of the meeting, any reservations or objections regarding the constitution of the meeting or the figures of the attendance roll that were previously read out, without this representing any undue delay, interruption or postponement in the normal course of the meeting.

Article 16. Committee of officers of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

1. The committee of officers of the General Shareholders' Meeting shall be composed of its chairman and the secretary.
2. The General Shareholders' Meeting shall be chaired by the chairman of the board of directors or, in the absence of the chairman, by the vice-chairman in the order established in the Company's bylaws. In the absence of the chairman and vice-chairman, the Meeting shall be chaired by the member designated by the Board, while the secretary of the board of directors shall act as secretary, who in the case of absence, indisposition or vacancy, shall be substituted by the vice-secretary in the order established in the Company's bylaws. In the absence of the secretary and vice-secretary, the role shall be filled by the member designated by the Board. In the absence of an express designation of chairman and secretary in accordance with the foregoing, the shareholders chosen from among the shareholders present at the Meeting shall act as chairman and secretary.
3. In the event that, once the General Shareholders' Meeting has commenced, the chairman or secretary has to leave for any reason, their duties shall be performed in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

Article 17. Order of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

It is the duty of the chairman to declare the Meeting validly constituted; to direct and establish the order of the deliberations and interventions, and the time assigned to them in accordance with these Regulations; to bring an end to discussions when he/she deems that the matter has been sufficiently discussed; to order voting to take place; to resolve any doubts arising from the agenda; and in general, to exercise all the authority necessary for the proper control of the Meeting, including the interpretation of the provisions of these Regulations.

Article 18. Interventions by shareholders.

Once the General Shareholders' Meeting has been constituted, the shareholders who wish to exercise their right to address the Meeting, or request information or clarifications in relation to items on the agenda or formulate proposals, shall identify themselves to the notary public or, as indicated by the notary public, state their full name and the number and class of shares they hold, or that they represent, if appropriate, to the assistants of the notary public. If they wish their intervention to be included in the minutes of the meeting, they must submit this in writing at that time to the notary public, so that the notary may check these details at the time that the shareholder speaks.

The Meeting shall be opened for shareholders to address it once the officers of the meeting have the list of shareholders who wish to address the meeting and the reports that the chairman considers appropriate have been presented, and in all cases, prior to voting on the items on the agenda.

Shareholders shall address the meeting in the order in which they are called by the officers of the meeting.

In exercising their authority to administer the functioning of the meeting, the officers may:

- (i) Decide on the order that shareholders address the meeting and whether this shall occur when each item on the agenda is discussed or should be grouped together, and if appropriate, if this should occur prior to discussing the proposed resolutions.
- (ii) Decide on the order of the responses to shareholders and whether they are made after each shareholder addresses the meeting, or if the responses should be grouped together, and if appropriate, summarized after the last shareholder has spoken, notwithstanding the legally established possibility of submitting the information in writing within the period of seven (7) days following the holding of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

The chairman shall determine the amount of time initially assigned to each shareholder, depending on the circumstances, while also extending or reducing the initially allotted time at his/her discretion, always ensuring equal treatment of those shareholders addressing the meeting and upholding the principle of non-discrimination.

Article 19. Right to receive information during the General Shareholders' Meeting.

During the period when shareholders can address the meeting, any shareholder may verbally request the information or clarifications that they deem necessary regarding matters contained on the agenda, as well as clarifications about public information provided by the Company to the National Securities Market Commission since the last General Shareholders' Meeting was held, or regarding the report from the Company's accounts auditor. These shareholders must have previously identified themselves in accordance with Article 17 above.

Directors shall be required to provide the information requested pursuant to the preceding section except in cases in which: (i) it is requested by shareholders representing less than twenty five percent of the paid up share capital; (ii) in their opinion, publication of this information is unnecessary to uphold the shareholder's rights, or if there are objective reasons to believe that the information could be used for purposes not related to the company or that its publication may damage the company or its related companies; (iii) the information requested is clear and has been made directly available to all shareholders in a question and answer format on the Company website, or (v) legal or regulatory provisions state otherwise.

The requested information or clarification will be provided by the chairman or, if applicable and if so directed, by the chairman of the Audit Committee, the secretary, a director or, if appropriate, by any employee or expert in the matter.

In the event that it is not possible to satisfy the shareholder's right to receive information during the Meeting, the directors shall provide the requested information in writing to the interested shareholder within seven days of the end of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

Article 20. Proposed resolutions.

Notwithstanding the possibility of making proposals of resolutions pursuant to the Capital Companies Act, prior to the notice of the General Shareholders' Meeting, during the period for shareholders to address the meeting, shareholders may make proposals for resolutions to the General Shareholders' Meeting regarding any item on the agenda that is not legally required to be made available to shareholders at the time of the notice of the meeting, and in relation to matters on which the meeting may deliberate without being included on the agenda.

Article 21. Remote voting.

1. Shareholders with the right to attend may vote on proposals relating to items on the agenda of any General Shareholders' Meeting by means of:
 - (a) Postal correspondence or delivery, submitting a duly signed attendance card and vote (if appropriate, together for the voting form issued by the Company) to the Company, or by other written means which, in the opinion of the board of directors in a resolution adopted for such purpose, duly accredits the identity of the shareholder exercising their right to vote; or
 - (b) Electronic correspondence or communication sent to the Company, accompanied by an electronic attendance card and vote (if appropriate, together with the voting form issued by the Company) bearing the electronic signature or other means of shareholder identification deemed appropriate by the board of directors, in a resolution adopted to provide this system of remote voting with the appropriate guarantees of authenticity and identification of the shareholders casting their vote.

Votes that are cast remotely will only be valid when they are received by the company prior to the twenty four hours of the day immediately preceding the date of the Meeting at first or second call or when, as agreed by a resolution adopted by the company's board of directors for such purposes, the company offers shareholders the possibility to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting and to execute their right to vote via online means, which enables them to connect to the venue(s) where the General Shareholders' Meeting is being held, in real time. Shareholders must be informed of this possibility when the announcement of the holding of the General Shareholders' Meeting is published. In any other cases, the vote will be considered as not cast.

2. Shareholders that cast their vote remotely under the terms of this Article shall be deemed present for the purposes of constituting the General Shareholders' Meeting in question. Therefore, proxies granted prior to the casting of such votes shall be deemed revoked and proxies granted after the casting of such votes shall be deemed as not granted.
3. The votes referred to in this Article that are cast remotely, shall be rendered void if the shareholder casting the vote attends the meeting in person or if the Company is made aware that the shares in question have been sold.

[ENGLISH TRANSLATION FOR INFORMATION PURPOSES. SPANISH VERSION SHOULD PREVAIL]

4. The board of directors may implement the aforementioned provisions establishing the instructions, means, rules and procedures that are state of the art and deemed to facilitate the casting of remote votes, adapting them to the corresponding regulations, the Company's bylaws and these Regulations. The implementing rules adopted by the board of directors pursuant to this Article shall be published on the Company's website.

Furthermore, in order to avoid potential duplications, the board of directors may adopt the measures necessary to ensure that the person remotely casting the vote is duly authorized to do so in accordance with the Company's bylaws and these Regulations.

Article 22. Voting on proposed resolutions.

1. Once the period for shareholders to address the meeting has ended and responses have been given to requests for information according to the provisions of these Regulations, the proposed resolutions on the items included on the agenda or others which, by law, are not required to figure therein or, if appropriate, any resolutions proposed by the shareholders during the course of the meeting, will be submitted to a vote.

The process of adopting resolutions will be carried out following the agenda provided in the notice of the meeting. The resolutions proposed by the board of directors will be voted on first and then, if appropriate, the proposals made by the shareholders, following the established order of priority. In all cases, once a proposed resolution has been adopted, all others related to the same matter that are incompatible with it shall be withdrawn and therefore not voted on.

In the event that resolutions are proposed relating to matters that can be agreed in the General Shareholders' Meeting without being included on the agenda, the chairman will decide on the order in which these are submitted to a vote.

The secretary will not have to read out proposed resolutions in advance if the text has already been made available to shareholders at the start of the meeting, except when deemed appropriate by the chairman. In all cases, the item on the agenda to which the proposed resolution subject to a vote refers will be indicated to those present.

2. Matters that are significantly independent must be voted on separately. In all cases, although included under the same item on the agenda, the following should be voted on separately: (i) the appointment, ratification, re-election or removal of each director; (ii) amendments of the Company's bylaws, for each article or group of articles that is essentially independent; and (iii) those matters that, if appropriate, are indicated in the Company's bylaws.

3. Notwithstanding the chairman's decision to use alternative voting systems, the voting on proposed resolutions referred to in the preceding paragraph will, as a general rule, be carried out as follows:
 - (a) The voting on the proposed resolutions referring to items included on the agenda shall be made according to a system of negative deduction. Under this system, the votes corresponding to all present or represented shares will be considered as votes in favor, deducting:
 - (i) The votes corresponding to the shares whose holders or proxies cast their vote against or in blank or abstain, by communication or statement of their vote or abstention to the notary public, to be recorded in the minutes;
 - (ii) The votes corresponding to the shares whose holders have voted against or in blank or have expressly stated their abstention by means of remote communication; and
 - (iii) The votes corresponding to the shares whose holders or proxies have left the Meeting prior to the vote on the proposed resolution in question and their departure from the meeting has been recorded by the notary public.
 - (b) The voting on the proposed resolutions referring to items not included on the agenda shall be according to a system of positive deduction. In this case, the votes corresponding to all present or represented shares will be considered as votes against, deducting:
 - (i) The votes corresponding to the shares whose holders or proxies cast their vote in favor or in blank or abstain, by communication or statement of their vote or abstention to the notary public to be recorded in the minutes; and
 - (ii) The votes corresponding to the shares whose holders or proxies have left the meeting prior to the vote on the proposed resolution in question and their departure from the meeting has been recorded by the notary public.
 - (c) The communications or statements to the notary public in the preceding two paragraphs with regard to the direction of voting or abstention may be made individually for each of the proposed resolutions or jointly for several or all resolutions, declaring to the notary public the identity and condition (shareholder or proxy) of the voter, the number and class of the shares and the direction of the vote or, if appropriate, the abstention.

- (d) To adopt resolutions relating to matters not included on the agenda, the shares held by shareholders participating in the meeting by means of remote voting will not be considered as present or represented.

Article 23. Division of voting.

1. Proxy representatives may hold the proxy of more than one shareholder, without limitation on the number of represented shareholders. If a proxy-holder represents several shareholders, the proxy-holder may cast votes in different directions based on the instructions given by each shareholder.
2. Furthermore, financial intermediaries who are recorded as having shareholder status in the book-entry registry may divide their vote in accordance with the voting instructions given by their clients.
3. In all other cases, the division of votes shall be permitted when justified in the opinion of the chairman of the meeting.

Article 24. Adoption of resolutions and announcement of results.

1. The General Shareholders' Meeting shall adopt resolutions with the voting majorities required by law or the Company's bylaws. Each voting share represented in person or by proxy at the General Shareholders' Meeting shall grant the holder the right to the number of votes established in the Company's bylaws for each type of share.
2. For the purposes of determining the number of shares upon which the majority needed for the adoption of the various resolutions shall be calculated, all shares appearing on the list of attendees shall be deemed to be present or represented at the meeting, less:
 - (a) The shares whose holders or proxy-holders have left the meeting prior to the voting on the proposed resolution or resolutions in question and their departure from the meeting has been recorded by the notary public or assistants of the notary public (or, in their absence, with the secretary of the General Shareholders' Meeting); and

- (b) The shares which, by application of the provisions of the law or the Company's bylaws, are totally or partially denied the right to vote in general, or on the particular resolution in question, or those shares for which the right to vote has been suspended for the holders thereof.

Article 25. Closure of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

The chairman has the duty to declare the Meeting closed.

Article 26. Minutes of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

The notarized minutes shall be considered as the minutes of the meeting and will not require the approval of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

Article 27. Publication of the resolutions.
