

The canons of Seville cathedral visit the exhibition, “Murillo and Justino de Neve. The art of friendship”

- At the Focus-Abengoa Foundation, accompanied by Anabel Morillo, director general of the Foundation, and Gabrielle Finaldi, curator of the exhibition and director of conservation at the Museo del Prado.

The exhibition, which is on display until 20th January at the Hospital de los Venerables Sacerdotes, the institution founded by Justino de Neve in the second half of the 17th century, has been visited by more than 30,000 people and comprises 16 paintings by the Sevillian artist that were commissioned by his friend, the canon of the cathedral, Justino de Neve. On this occasion, the exhibition was visited by the current canons of Seville cathedral, allowing them to see the works that resulted from the friendship between Murillo and Justino de Neve during the 17th century.
