

Abengoa launches its new blog "The Energy of Change"

- You can visit the new microsite at <http://www.theenergyofchange.com>

6 August, 2014 – Abengoa (MCE: ABG.B/P SM /NASDAQ: ABGB), an international company that applies innovative technology solutions for sustainability in the energy and environment sectors has launched a new blog "The Energy of Change": a complete microsite in which Internet users can find information and opinion on issues of interest to those areas related to the company's activity.

With Abengoa's commitment to developing a more sustainable world through innovation, the microsite is divided into four categories under the theme "technology solutions to change... the every day, the future, the environment and the world." In them, the site visitor will find articles explaining basic concepts in areas such as bioenergy, solar technology and water treatment, as well as related articles, current issues and company news.

All these files are also available in Spanish and can be accessed through the URL:

www.laenergíadelcambio.com

Moreover, in the context of Abengoa's focus on social media, the company's presence in social networks has been strengthened. So far we have presence in Twitter and LinkedIn, but we have started our path in other media, such as Facebook, YouTube, Instagram, Pinterest and SlideShare. All these channels are accessible from Abengoa's website and the new microsite: www.theenergyofchange.com.
